

UX Brand Research

Method

Purpose of Round 1: Ask questions applying the Three Levels of Processing to understand the effectiveness of design concepts and make improvements accordingly.

Purpose of Round 2: Ask questions applying the Three Levels of Processing to understand the effectiveness of each logo and make improvements accordingly.

Participants

1. 21 years old, Student, Psychology Major
2. 21 years old, Student, Classics Major
3. 20 years old, Student, Psychology Major

Style Guide

Mission statement:

Version A: Are.na is working to build a self-sustained community for shared knowledge.

Version B: Are.na's mission is to continue to cultivate a member-supported community. Since we're accountable only to our members, our incentive is always to build a tool that fosters learning and genuine collaboration.

Names:

Version A: Are.na

Version B: Arena

Font:

Version A: Are.na (Arial)

Version B: Are.na (Roboto)

Color palette:

Version A:

Version B:

Participant Insights

Mission Statement: Version B preferred, should be shorter, more youthful, and more creative.

Name: Stick with Are.na.

Font: Arial preferred to Roboto.

Color Palette: Black, white, and blue version preferred. Could use a brighter/more neon shade or color.

Final Design Concepts

Mission Statement:

Are.na's mission is to continue to cultivate a member-supported community, fostering learning and genuine collaboration - like "Playlists, but for ideas."

Name:

Are.na

Font:

Arial

Color Palette:

Logo Samples

A.

B.

Participant Insights

Logo A: Prefer the layout to to Logo B.

Logo B: Like the inclusion of bright colors, little too much going on, prefer the slogan “Playlists, but for ideas.”

Final Logo

Appendix

Round 1:

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1RNC3JJCqDNyLVDrfRPaPQO31gY8uEFd0oHtvJmZiV2I/edit?usp=sharing>

Round 2:

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1hpxGghRqWbnFe0SEGJD0qjMbgfjjMi1xJpylqNh7p1g/edit?usp=sharing>